

Brand Pitch Worksheet

What is a Brand Pitch?

A Brand Pitch is a concise narrative that provides the why, how, and what of your brand. Like a good story, it contains a beginning, middle, and end as well as characters, but it should elicit an emotional response from customers. They should believe it and feel it in your actions. It can be used explicitly in sales and marketing content (in pieces or in total) or it can help inform other messaging.

How do you determine your Brand Pitch?

First, you need to define the characters. Who is the hero of the story? Who is the guide? Remember that your customers should ALWAYS be the hero in the Brand Story. Your brand is the guide.

Next, you have to craft the beginning, middle, and end. Here's a guide to help you get started:

Beginning:

- What is the state of the world without you being present in the hero's life?
- Before we were here... ______

Middle:

- How does your arrival change the hero's perspective?
- Then we showed up... ______

End:

- How do you help the hero overcome their problem/pain?
- The difference we made... ______

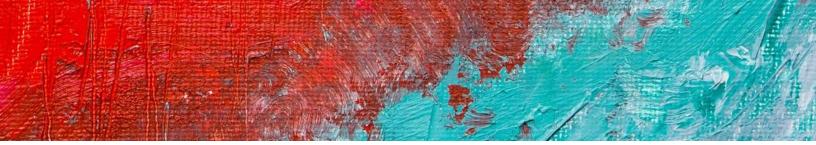

What if?:

- If the hero doesn't use your guidance, what happens? What's the sad ending?
- When we weren't there...

Singular Brand Pitch

Now, take what you wrote above and put it together in a singular story on the lines below. Interpret the pieces of your Brand Pitch in a creative way.

A Resounding Brand Pitch

A really great Brand Pitch goes way beyond the basic components. They succeed in eliciting an emotional response from customers. Some good examples of powerful Brand Pitches in use are:

- WarbyParker: warbyparker.com/history
- Beats:beatsbydre.com/company/aboutus

• GoPro: gopro.com/about-us

- Virgin Airlines: virginamerica.com/cms/about-our-airline
- Soulcycle: soul-cycle.com/our-story

Making a resounding Brand Pitch means finding ways to do one or more of the following:

- Weave the ______ together
- Infer the hero's ______ from the
- Imply the ______
- Leverage ______ stories

How can you take what you currently have for your Brand Pitch and make it remarkable? Blank lines are a great place to start writing...and rewriting.
